I.- Read the story and underline the correct answer.

Woodpeckers

A woodpecker is a kind of bird. Woodpeckers are found all over the world except in the North and South poles, Australia, and New Zealand. There are over 200 different kinds of woodpeckers. The two largest woodpeckers, the Imperial Woodpecker and the Ivory-billed Woodpecker are most likely extinct. Animals that are extinct are no longer found on Earth. Woodpeckers have sharp bills for drilling into wood, and short, stiff tails which help prop them up against tree trunks and branches. Woodpeckers also have very long tongues, which help them get at insects deep within trees. Woodpeckers are often heard drumming loudly on trees before they are seen. Woodpeckers can even become pests if they learn to drum on siding of a house. Woodpeckers can easily be attracted to backyard bird feeders with sunflower seeds or suet. Suet is a kind of animal fat that is very tasty to woodpeckers and other birds.

2) When do woodpeckers sometimes become pests?

- A. When they become extinct.
- B. When they drum on houses.
- C. When they eat suet.
- D. When they visit feeders.

3) Woodpeckers are often...

- A. heard before they are seen.

- B. They will come to bird feeders.
- C. They are only found in a few places in the world.
- D. They have short, stiff tails.

II. Read the passage. Then answer each question.

THE WOLF.

A boy named John was once taking care of some sheep not far from a forest. Nearby was a village, and he was told to call for help if there was any danger. One day, in order to have some fun, he cried out with all his might, "The wolf is coming! The wolf is coming!" The men came running with clubs and axes to save the boy from the wolf. As they saw nothing, they went home again and left John laughing in his sleeve.

Because he had had so much fun, John cried out again the next day, "The wolf! The wolf!" The men came again, but not as many as the first time. Again they saw no trace of the wolf, so they shook their heads and went back.

On the third day, the wolf came in earnest. John cried in dismay, "Help! Help! The wolf! The wolf!" But not a single man came to help him. The wolf broke into the flock and killed a great many sheep. Among them was a beautiful lamb that belonged to John. Then he felt very sorry that he had deceived his friends and neighbors, and he grieved over the loss of his pet lamb. The truth itself is not believed, from one who often has deceived.

1. Why does the boy shout, "The wolf is coming?"

2. Why will no one help the boy when the wolf came?

3. What do you think the boy learned by the end of the story?

4. What do the people's actions tell you about how they feel about wolves?

III. Read and circle the correct answer, true or false.
